

Kedarkantha Winter Trek - Uttarakhand

⌚ 4 nights, 5 days

Overview

Kedarkantha peak is located in Govind Wildlife Sanctuary, Uttarkashi. It is accessible throughout the year, except July and August. The summit of Kedarkantha peak altitude or height is 3810 meters or 12,500 feet. Kedarkantha summit offers 360-degree view of many peaks like Swargarohini, Bandarpoonch I & II, Black peak, Ranglana, and the Yamunotri and Gangotri mountain ranges.

The name of the peak translates to "Lord Shiva's throat", Kedar (केदार) meaning Shiva & Kantha (कंठ) meaning throat.

What is the best time to go for Kedarkantha trek?

The trek is possible in at least 9 or 10 out of 12 months in a year. The time period when the trek should not be attempted is during the months of July and August when the monsoon rains arrive and incessant rains make the trek very risky. The trek is generally safe during all the other months of the year. In peak winters excessive snowfall can close the trek for some short duration as well, for a few days, such as in January month.

Important Notes

To ensure you're well prepared, we will be with you throughout your preparations, all the way till your trek/trip date.

Before all that, here are 3 important steps for you to follow:

- Book flexible flight tickets for your trek: When you're going for a trek, there are many uncertainties -- weather, snow, govt. orders, forest permits -- many things can go wrong. Even though this happens only in 1% of our treks, it's best to have flights that can be rescheduled.
- Bus Ticket Reservations: If you plan to book Delhi to Dehradun to Delhi bus tickets, please contact our office at least 7 days prior to your departure date. Keep in mind that ticket availability is subject to change, so book early to secure your travel.
- Early Arrival Suggestion: We strongly advise all participants to reach the trek starting point 1 day prior to the trek's scheduled departure (Day 0). This will allow you to rest and acclimate, ensuring you are well-prepared for the adventure ahead.
- Accommodation Booking: If you require accommodation either before or after the trek, please get in touch with our office. We can assist you in making bookings at suitable accommodations to enhance your overall experience.

Please adhere to these important instructions to ensure a smooth and enjoyable trekking experience. Your comfort and safety are our top priorities.

- Download and carry these mandatory documents on your trek. A medical certificate signed by a doctor. A disclaimer signed by you. Without these, you will not be allowed on the trek:
 - Medical certificate to be signed by a doctor - Download here
 - Declaration and enrollment form to be signed by you - Download here

Carry original copies with you on trek and submit them to your trek leader.

- Share your ID card to your trek/trip leader after booking is done. In order for us to obtain permissions for your trek/trip, we need your ID card. Ensure you share those within the next three days.
